

“Miss Clovis Rodeo” Queen Contest Rules and Regulations

We would like to thank-you for your consideration in competing for the 106th Annual Miss Clovis Rodeo title. The competition is scheduled to be held in April 2020. The application deadline is Saturday, March 7, 2020 and there will be a mandatory orientation meeting on Saturday, March 14, 2020.

As a candidate you must be available for activities and the competition period throughout the months leading up to the Clovis Rodeo. Mandatory dates include Saturday, March 14th for Orientation; the weekend of April 4th and 5th for Big Hat Days which kicks off our rodeo events; and all events leading up to and including the Clovis Rodeo, April 22nd - 26th. If you are selected as Miss Clovis Rodeo your reign will be from April 22, 2020 to April 21, 2021. All dates are subject to change, but every effort will be made to provide ample notification to qualified candidates for planning purposes.

The Clovis Rodeo Association and/or Clovis Rodeo Festival Association (“Clovis Rodeo” or “Association”) along with the event sponsors, contest sponsors, their agents, officers and employees must be released from any and all liability, which might result from, or arise out of, a contestant’s participation in the contest, including all activities in connection therewith. Before any contestant is eligible to compete the attached waiver of liability must be signed by the contestant and the contestant’s parent and/or guardian, if the said contestant is under the age of 21 during any portion of the period of competition or potential reign as Miss Clovis Rodeo.

Eligible contestants must be single females, having never been married; not less than 17 years of age as of April 1, 2020 and not more than 22 years of age as of July 31, 2020. Contestants are eligible to enter the contest a maximum of three times. Past “Miss Clovis Rodeo” queens are not eligible to compete.

Contestant shall remain free of any questionable behavior as defined at the discretion of the Clovis Rodeo Board of Directors and/or Queen Contest Committee including actions involving an issue of morality. Unacceptable actions as defined by the Clovis Rodeo, but not limited to, including consumption of alcohol, use of illegal drugs, or involvement in any illegal activities will not be tolerated, and will be grounds for disqualification. The Clovis Rodeo Queen, 1st runner up, and 2nd runner up shall be expected to adhere to all contest rules throughout their reign.

The harassment of judges, committee members or other contestants, by a contestant, her family, or representative, will not be tolerated. A contestant that is found guilty of practicing said behavior WILL BE IMMEDIATELY DISQUALIFIED.

If for any reason it is determined the reigning Miss Clovis Rodeo cannot fulfill her duties during any portion of her term the 1st runner up will be eligible to assume the title. Upon such time as the reigning Miss Clovis Rodeo is dismissed or forfeits her title, all scholarship funds, awards and gifts given in relationship to the position must be returned to the Clovis Rodeo Association (including scholarship funds, Queen's belt buckle, crown, etc.)

Every contestant must personally prepare an application, and two (2) autobiographies. (See Autobiography Guidelines)

Every contestant is required to submit one (1) glossy color photograph that is 4"x6", (a head and shoulder shot in western attire and hat) and an original electronic file of the same photo in .jpg or.tif format that is 300dpi. (See Photo Guidelines)

Every contestant will provide a horse and tack for the horsemanship phase of the contest; to ride in the parade; and during presentation of contestants.

No stallions will be permitted.

Western apparel will be worn for all phases of competition. Western apparel will be jeans, blouse, hat, and boots.

The Clovis Rodeo Association reserves the right to cancel the contest or extend the deadline, if less than three entrants submit applications for the "Miss Clovis Rodeo Queen" competition.
